

poem of amma

Mira Sears '28

In the great sky, you're my sparkling star Watching over me, wherever you are
Or you are the sand on Pebble Beach
Not far away but within arm's reach

To you, I was special, no one can outdo
How you made me feel when it was just me and you
So much of these memories will live in my heart
Even though now, we seem so far apart

Selfless, beautiful, courageous, smart
You taught me your ways with a grandmother's heart
Sharing your stories of lands far away
Or a back-to-school song for my very first day

Grief is magnified by your love for someone
And oh how I loved you, we had so much fun Now who will I talk to, and what will I do? Without my sweet Amma, there's no one like you

I will try to be strong and make you so proud
I will embrace my family and live my life out loud You will never be gone; you will never be far In the great sky, you're my sparkling star
